TIME	ACTIVITY
9:00-9:45	Breakfast, Registration, and Opening Remarks
9:45-10:45	Supporting Academic and Social-Emotional Growth for All Students Schools today are responsible for promoting growth of the whole student, across academics, behavior, attendance, SEL. In this session, we'll discuss how districts are using data to better understand and serve all the needs of their students. We'll start the day by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Level-setting on terminology and approaches used by area districts, such as Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS), Response to Intervention (RTI), Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS), Early Warning Indicators (EWI), and Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) • Exploring new findings on students' SEL growth across key competencies, such as Self-Management and Social Awareness • Looking at academic, behavior, and attendance data alongside SEL data to identify which students are on-track for college, career, and life readiness Facilitators: Tara Chiatovich, PhD, Research Scientist, Panorama Education Brandon Rush, Outreach Director, Panorama Education
10:45-11:00	Stretch Break
11:00-12:00	How Waltham Public Schools Promotes Equity and Provides Targeted Student Supports When Waltham Public Schools first began their Early Warning Indicator (EWI) measurement journey in 2015, they experienced challenges surrounding data usage and access. In this session, we'll learn from Waltham's journey and identify important conversations to have with your team before, during, and after implementation including what kind of data is needed, access levels, data sharing, and embedding the process into your district culture. The team from Waltham will also share how social-emotional learning measurement has become an important part of student support in their district. Facilitators: Liz Homan, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and instruction, Waltham Public Schools Sejin Mong, Director of Strategic Engagements, Panorama Education, Middle School Math Teacher (2011-2013), Senior Inquiry Facilitator and Data Analyst at BPS (2013-2015)
